

MUD

Testo di Carmen Serra
Musica di Fabio Costantino

As the day starts they can't wait already in the shadow in the ring they examine me throw mud at me workin' my way ignore my pains and my efforts i watched them as i left them there away from that ring away - (away- away - away...) rolling down i crawl like them - i hold on to my self control i dodge punches and stand still, hate the smug on their face but it stays they throw mud and they enjoy (it) throwin' mud they drive you mad phony foxes in agony in the web they lay and stay (lay and stay - lay and stay) like demons and snakes they're persistent in that ring full of fragile souls it's no use to give'em some kind of love deceit 's the answer to all your calls i'm came back to face' em in the ring and fight them away (away away) i bite dust and carry on i let go of my self control i hit back ignoring them they stumble and they fall deep down

they throw mud and mud hits back slimy snakes in agony in the abyss they sink down

full of spite they're drowning down i am there to give a hand they can't take it anymore... (anymore / anymore)
